

HVAC&R EMERGING TRENDS SYMPOSIUM • JULY 19

ABOUT THIS EVENT

On Wednesday, July 19, AIRAH's WA division will host the HVAC&R Emerging Trends Symposium. The half day event will take place at Ascot Racecourse and conclude with a networking lunch. This event is an excellent opportunity to network in a face-to-face setting while hearing about the latest industry trends from HVAC&R building services experts.

Our 2023 presentations include:

- CO2, water & propane – the emergence of natural refrigerants by Dario Ferlin, M.AIRAH, National Sustainable Engineering Manager, Woolworths Group
- Ultra-violet (UVC) technology by Shaun Pahalad, Affil.AIRAH, Managing Director, Air Concepts
- Embodied carbon by Mark Taylor, Hesperia on behalf of MECLA
- The journey towards net zero by Beth Morris, Team Leader – Built Improvement, hfm, a BGIS Company
- Indoor air quality by Joseph Scholz, M.AIRAH, QED Environmental Services.

There will also be opportunities for Q&A and networking throughout the event.
